SENIORS' MESSAGE TO CENTRAL

IN BIDDING farewell to Central we have pleasant memories of four fruitful years, and it is with feelings of deep gratitude and regret that we say goodbye.

We should be very much remiss, indeed, if we did not express our appreciation and thanks to the Brothers, Teachers and Coaches who have, by their efforts and example guided us so ably through the course of our High School life.

To the Central Round Table, likewise, we return thanks for its unflagging interest and tireless efforts toward Central and its various activities.

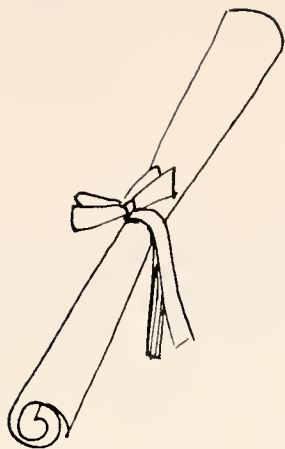

The whole hearted co-operation and support given us by Girls' Central High School is deeply appreciated.

To the underclassmen, we leave the glorious traditions of Central hoping that they will be treasured and fostered in the true Central Spirit.

CLASS PROPHECY – 1950

One evening by the fireside
As I thought of days gone by
I was wakened from my dreaming
By an eager little cry.

"Dad, who are all these fellows
With their pictures in this book?"
"Well, I don't know whom you mean, son
But wait, let's have a look."

Ray Pesanti and Jack Canavan
Rope steers out on the prairies
While Joe Burns and Billy Quinn
Both run a string of dairies.

Jim Sullivan, a weight lifter
Now works for Barnum and Bailey.
Billy Burke is his Barker
Who announces for him daily.

Holman in a smart cafe
Has the duty of a bouncer.
While Callahan still thrills the girls
As a great T. V. announcer.

Devich plays with the House of David
His beard is two feet long
For halftine entertainment
Don Dougherty sings a song.

Barry and Laird are playboys
And buy flowers for all their dates
From Myers who is a florist
Who gives them special rates.

Cox owns a flashy restaurant
That was his life time wish
With Mattich in the kitchen
They put out a famous dish.

Capone is forgotten
Chicago rests in peace
Since Tom Woods was elected
Chief of the City Police.

Foley and Max Mogus
Write very funny plays
Which are acted out by Wiegstein
Who has landed on Broadway.

Then there was Hughie Murphy
He came from a one-horse town
He stalled on the track: the train came,
Whack! Now he's six feet down.

As a clever Forest Ranger
Joe Schara has them beat.
Frank Hackett is a Doctor
His specialty being feet.

Con Kelly and Gene Sullivan
Toil at the Metals Bank
Mulcahy is a dentist
Who has a mighty yank.

Kennedy and Rogers
Are foremen at the mines.
While Brisbin and Frank Simon
Are trappin' among the pines.

Joe Pat and E. J. Sullivan
Are known the world around
They make those masks for Halloween
That scare the kids in town.

McGurk is now a Paulist Priest
In the Land of the Setting Sun.
Tom Kelly and McClafferty
Are running "bootleg rum."

O'Leary is a salesman
Down by the Rio Grande
Jim Sheehan is guest conductor
Of the Mexican National Band.

Green is now a bandit
He is handy with a gun
Joe Clair Kelly is a cop
And has Green on the run.

J. J. Sullivan is a wrestler
He had "the Phantom" on the floor
While Lee Wulf is the manager
Of a famous Safeway store.

Pat Cavanaugh with his famous band
Is now a television star
Dan Bartsch is very busy
Slinging beers across the bar.

Tim Sullivan had an illness.
A bad attack of flu,
He lingered on at death's dark door
'Till Doc Freshman pulled him thru.

Flynn now runs Duggan's Mortuary
With lots of money in the purse.
Dan Sullivan tends the parlor,
And Stevenson drives the hearse.

His wife is still in mourning
And is feeling very glum
For poor O'Brien has strangled
On Herzog's chewing gum.

McLeod now is a boxer
A wicked right has he
With Bibs Sullivan his manager
A champ he soon will be.

"Now it's past your bedtime son
You shouldn't be so tardy."
Lots of Luck to all of you
From Behan, McGrath, and Hardy.

MR. TOM QUINN

IT IS the turn of the Class of "50" to say "Thanks" to one whose loyalty to Central has ever been outstanding and whose patience and good nature, although imposed upon on numerous occasions, has never been lacking. All of us love and respect Tom and have been helped and befriended by him again and again. He has been to us an outstanding example of devotion to duty. We will ever be indebted to him for his faithful service and kindly interest, and we join with the eleven graduating classes preceding us, in offering him our sincere thanks.

ACTIVITIES

CONDUCTOR MARTIN CESARE

THIS YEAR'S Central Band ably upheld the fine reputation for skill and performance, now traditional with Central musicians. The lion's share of praise goes to our unassuming and efficient conductor,

Mr. Martin Cesare. His tireless efforts, unlimited patience, and skill as a teacher, bore rich fruit.

The football and basketball seasons were enlivened by the snappy, spirited rendition of school songs, marches, and stunt numbers, climaxed by the enthusiastic musical outburst on the closing night of the State Basketball Championship game at Anaconda. At the rallies, assemblies and the Basketball Victory Celebration the band was the focal point of enjoyable programs. At all the games and other occasions mentioned above, Brother J. X. Dunphy acted as conductor in his customary efficient manner. He is responsible for the excellent conduct, neat appearance and fine discipline of the organization, as well as for the live interest and attention exhibited at all times.

The concert band answered many requests of the people of Butte. It entertained the Elks' Club, the Daughters of Isabella, the Anaconda Mining Club, gave the usual Saint Patrick's Day Concert in the school auditorium and played the American and Irish National Anthems in St. Patrick's Church after the High Mass. A fine musical program was presented on the evening of the Shower for the Brothers and a successful year was brought to a close with the annual Mother's Day concert.

BROTHER McMAHON

ONE OF the most outstanding activities at Central is the tumbling team. Year in and year out, the tumblers are the pride and joy not only of Central but of the entire city of Butte.

This past year the tumblers gave thirty-five exhibitions — a record in itself. The team performed at most of the home basketball games and also for organizations in Butte, Aanconda, Bozeman, Boulder, and Helena.

The team was always enthusiastically received wherever it went. As one writer of the local newspaper wrote: "Each act of the Central tumbling team was greeted with hearty applause and each was carried through with precision and timing comparable to those of professional artists."

A great deal of the tumblers' success was due to the leadership of the Seniors on the squad: Jim Hardy, George Rogers, Jack Canavan, and Joe Kennedy.

The underclassmen also upheld the traditions of the Central tumbling teams and to them we extend our sincerest thanks.

We would also like to express our thanks to the Accordion Band which was such a great help to the tumblers at all their exhibitions.

The tumbling team and its coach, Brother McMahon, cannot be given too much praise for their untiring efforts and clever performances.

REV. BROTHER JOHN C. FELLOWS

THE DRAMATIC CLUB

MIX A rib-tickling comedy, talented thespians, and a willing production staff; add plenty of hard work and fun; blend well with unlimited enthusiasm and co-operation and you have the Boys' Central Dramatic Club which under the expert direction of Brother J. C. Fellows, enlarges its scope and adds new laurels to its already traditional reputation for outstanding performances.

After long weeks of intensive rehearsals the club presented its first performance of the year, "No Soap", staged at the Fox Theater, November 17. The plot centered around a serious young man who won $5,000 for writing a radio script in a contest. As the contest was open to women only, many mirthful, complicated situations ensued.

Hardly had the applause for this hit died away when, on March 9, the club was ready for its second production of the season, "Adam's Evening", a hilarious farce about "Adam", a friendly chap, who gets caught trying to slip into his house after being out until 4 A. M. The explanation he gives of his whereabouts leads to a riot of fun and swift moving action.

The Club also supplied actors for the male roles in Girls' Central play, "Jenny Kissed Me", and before the termination of the year a one act play will also have been presented.

Hearty "Thank You's" go to Brother J. C. Fellows, our director; to Miss Dorothy Kane, our make-up artist; to Mr. Thomas Quinn, our set manager; to Frank Wiegenstein, John Comba, Larry Shimmin, and Lee Hightower, our prompters and stage managers; and to our many friends who co-operated in making our plays such marvelous successes.

EDWARD H. ROY was born in the famous "Witch City" of Salem, Massachusetts, but grew up in Minneapolis. Here he graduated from De La Salle High School where he won fame both as a scholar and an athlete. After receiving his Master's degree from the University of Minnesota, he became assistant football and basketball coach at James Milliken University, Decatur, Illinois. During the War, he served as a Navy Air Force physical instructor. He came back to Civil life in the capacity of head coach at Williston, North Dakota and transferred from there to Butte in August, 1949.

THE MAROON AND WHITE CHAMPIONS

THE DREAM of Butte Central fans, cherished for years, was realized on March 18 when Central won its first State Championship. Credit goes to the team first of all, which gave a convincing demonstration of what a "Ten Man Team" can do. Coach Ed Roy, selected as the best coach in the Tournament, did a masterpiece of defensive strategy, notably in upsetting Anaconda; and supplied in addition plenty of fireworks in the speedy and heady attack of his victorious Maroons. The Tournament was the climax of a very successful season (see summary of scores). No aggregation showed more team work and the reserves vied with the regulars and did not weaken the team in the least when they took over.

Congratulations, many and sincere, to a grand team — champions in every sense of the word and gentlemen on and off the court. Their Sportsmanship drew high praise from the officials, coaches, and fans all over the State.

The success of the team, of course, is due principally to its fine coach, Ed Roy. May he be with us for many years to come.

Our thanks to Brother McKenna, our Moderator, to Mr. George Perry for physical care, timely advice and ready assistance, and to our industrious hard-working managers, Dan Combo and Jack Keeley. Our loyal fans merit appreciation for their unwavering support and encouragement. To our Band, Girls' Central Twirlers, Pep Club and Cheer Leaders, and to our own Tumblers we say "Thanks" for the enjoyable entertainment furnished during the season.

MR. JAMES FREEBOURN
Coach

"B" TEAM BASKETBALL

OUR PRINCIPAL source of future material is found in the "B" teams. This year's squad had a very successful season under the guidance of Mr. James Freebourn and Brother Mahoney. Central seems ensured of good varsity material for the next few years.

COACH JOHNNY DIXON

FRESHMAN BASKETBALL

JOHN DIXON did his usual fine job of training the Freshman squad. As a teacher of fundamentals John is a great asset to the school. He also stresses the advantage of using a definite system and of being a team man rather than an individualist. Central's future stars are getting the right start on the road to basketball success.

THE INCREASED enrollment at Central, the extensive program of activities, the well-equipped teams and excellent coaching facilities are directly traceable to the efforts of The Central Round Table. No organization of its kind could be more faithful to the purpose of its founding or more active in its support of the School and its varied activities than this fine body.

The faculty and the student body feel deeply indebted to the Round Table and are happy to have this opportunity of expressing their appreciation and gratitude.

ST. GABRIEL'S DAY

*A*S IS the custom, a graduate of Central who is laboring in the exalted vocation of the priesthood, is invited to offer Mass and give the traditional sermon on the life and virtues of the School Patron, Saint Gabriel.

The assignment this year was handled in a masterly fashion by Father James Gannon.

May our great Patron ever inspire us to nobler deeds and to truly Christian life.

MONTANA'S HISTORY IS UNIQUE

Not many states can boast of as interesting a pedigree as does Montana.

Montana's United States history dates from April 30, 1803, when Louisiana was purchased from France. Louisiana of that day included the vast area stretching west from the Mississippi river to the Continental Divide.

Four-sixths of what is now Montana was twice owned by France; once owned by Spain; was at various times part of six territories as follows: Louisiana, Missouri, Nebraska, Dakota, Idaho and Montana.

In 1806, two-sixths of Montana was claimed by three nations — England, Spain and Russia. The United States title to the area now embracing Oregon, Washington, Idaho and a part of Montana, was not established until 1846. Two-sixths of Montana therefore was at one time part of Oregon country. In succession, it became part of the following territories: Washington, Idaho and Montana.

The territory of Montana was organized in 1865 and statehood was acquired in 1889.

Montana is the third largest state in the union. Rightfully called the Treasure State, Montana is exceptionally rich in natural resources.

LET'S TALK ABOUT YOUR FUTURE

Because . . .

your future is up to YOU!

Your future is closely wrapped up with the future of your country, and it's not too early for you to decide what you want your country to be. You want a nation, a system, a way of life that will give you the best opportunity in your own jobs.

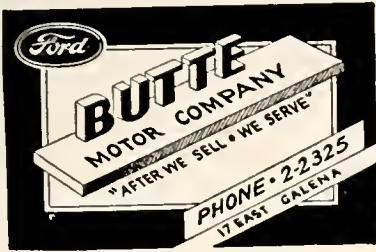

Some socialistic planners today want you to scrap your way of life for a new philosophy, a new plan in which the State would take over the functions of free enterprise. The State would take over your industries, build your homes, run your lives.

But — remember this — the American system of free enterprise has built for you the strongest nation and the highest standard of living the world has known. It has built these things on freedom of choice, freedom to work, invest and own property.

Socialism operates on force, higher taxes and slavery. It has failed everywhere it has been tried. Free enterprise operates on incentive, initiative and freedom. What better proof of its success than the nation in which you live today!
